

Peru's Danper Trujillo securs $17.5m financing

Danper Trujillo, a leading Peruvian agro-export company, has secured a $17.5-million financing from Banco de Crédito del Perú.

Danper Trujillo is a Peruvian-owned agribusiness company that is a world leader in the production, processing, and export of high-quality food products. Recognized for its innovation, management model based on the creation of shared value, and commitment to sustainability,

The company is a supplier of prestigious global brands and international supermarket chains, and a strategic ally in the global food value chain.

Peruvian law firm Hernández & Cía. advised Banco de Crédito del Perú in the granting of a medium-term loan to Danper Trujillo, and which is aimed at strengthening its agricultural and industrial investments.

Hernández & Cía's team was led by partner José Goyburu, with senior associate Andrea Limón and associates Rafaela Chumpitazi and Flavio Castañeda.

Muñiz, Olaya, Meléndez, Castro, Ono & Herrera Abogados advised Danper Trujillo, with a team led by partner Juan Carlos Salinas.

Companies mentioned in this article

 Hernández & Cía Abogados