Hernández & Cía. advised Banco BBVA Perú in the structuring and granting of a medium-term financing under Peruvian law in favor of Trabajos Marítimos (Tramarsa) for up to US$ 70'000,000.00. The proceeds of the loan aim to refinance existing financial debt and for general corporate purposes.

The financing is secured by two joint and several guarantees granted by Tramarsa's subsidiaries, Santa Sofía Puertos and Terminal Internacional del Sur.

Tramarsa is a leading company in the maritime and port operations business in Peru. It provides services for ships, cargo, and maritime and port infrastructure, and is a key strategic player in the country's foreign trade logistics chain.

Hernandez & Cía was the advisor of BBVA Peru and its team was comprised by partner Jose Goyburu Vassallo (pictured), senior associate Julien Labory-Alicq and associate Luciana Quintana.

The firm Rodrigo, Elías & Medrano Abogados was the advisor of Tramarsa and was led by partner Jorge Trelles and associate Alejandro Prado de Orbegoso.
