

Carlos Núñez

Partner

cnunez@ehernandez.com.pe

linkedin.com/in/carlos-nunez-caballero/

Practice Areas

- Projects, Infrastructure and Construction
- Dispute Resolution (Arbitration)
- Public Law

Education

- Financial Structuring, ESAN (2007).
- Master of Laws (LL.M.), Georgetown University Law Center (2005).
- Finance and Corporate Law, ESAN (2001).
- Lawyer, Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú (1996).

Career

- Hernández & Cía. (2026–present).
- Regional Co-Leader for the US–Latin America International Arbitration Practice Group at DLA Piper (until February 2026).
- Chair of the Peruvian Society of Construction Law (2021–2023).
- Arbitrator at the Lima Chamber of Commerce.
- Consultant in Washington, D.C. to the Legal Department of the Inter-American Development Bank, focused on the development of projects with sovereign guarantees in Venezuela, Colombia, Ecuador, Peru and Caribbean countries.

Acknowledgments

- Recognized by Chambers and Partners as Band 2 in Projects and Band 3 in Dispute Resolution: Arbitration, and by Legal 500 as Leading Partner in Projects and Infrastructure.

Teaching

- Professor of the specialization course on Dispute Boards, organized by the Arbitration Center of the Lima Chamber of Commerce and the Peruvian Society of Construction Law.
- Graduate Professor at Universidad del Pacífico in matters related to Public-Private Partnerships, public works and dispute resolution. He is also a frequent speaker on topics within his area of expertise.

Memberships

- Lima Bar Association.
- Peruvian Society of Construction Law.
- Arbitrator listed on the roster of the Arbitration Center of the Lima Chamber of Commerce.

Languages

- Spanish and English.